The Royal Society for the Conservation of Nature

Make a Difference

What is RSCN

Is a national, non-government organization devoted to the conservation of Jordan's wildlife and wild places. It was founded in 1966 under the patronage of His Majesty the late King Hussein and has been given responsibility by the government to establish and manage protected areas and enforce environmental laws. As such, it is one of the few voluntary organizations in the Middle East to be granted such a public service mandate.

RSCN Membership

Members are the backbone of RSCN, we couldn't do all the great conservation work without them. Whether you decide to become a paying RSCN Member or a free Friend of RSCN your support is so important to help us conserve Jordan's nature, raise public awareness, and create sustainable economic opportunities for communities throughout the Kingdom. So join today and make a difference!

Why RSCN Needs Your Support Now

Our wildlife and beautiful landscapes are in ever-increasing danger. Every day habitats and species are being damaged or lost by uncontrolled development, overhunting and intensive agriculture.

We need people to show that they support our natural heritage.
